Halloween Wrap-up

Despite the inclement weather, the Lake Bluff Police Department, with help from their families and a variety of other volunteers, served over 1,000 hot dogs, bags of potato chips and cans of soda to community Trick-or-Treaters. This well received community event was graciously and generously supported by Knauz Automotive, the Grill at the Lake Bluff Park District, Two Paws Up Dog Training and the Coca-Cola Company.

Daylight Saving Time Ends - November 3rd

Don't forget - Daylight Saving Time ends on November 3rd. Be sure to turn your clocks back one hour on Saturday night before bed. During this time residents are also encouraged to change the batteries in their smoke and carbon monoxide detectors.

Veteran's Day Holiday Reminders - November 11th

Please be reminded the Veteran's Day holiday, refuse, recycling, and yard waste collections will remain the same during the week of November 11th. Also, Village Hall will remain open on Monday, November 11th (8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.).

Veteran's Day Ceremony Hosted by American Legion - November 11th

The Lake Bluff Veteran's Day Ceremony, conducted by the Lake Bluff American Legion Post 510, is scheduled for November 11th at 9:00 a.m. on the Village Green.

State Senator Julie Morrison and State Representative Scott Drury will read the names of local casualties. Post 510 Commander David Cimarrusti will host. Colonel Neal F. McIntyre, US Army, will be the Guest Speaker.

Terry Leone, Lake Bluff Women's Club President will lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Pastor Mark Hindman, Union Church, Lake Bluff, will deliver the Invocation and Benediction. Boy Scout Troop 42 will conduct the flag ceremony.

Lake Forest High School Band, directed by Janene Kessler, will provide music. LFHS student Grant Papastefan will sing the Star Spangled Banner and America The Beautiful. LFHS Buglers Timothy Walther and Thomas Balk will perform Taps and Echo. Lake Bluff Middle School

Student Council President Ursela Nugent will deliver the Gettysburg Address.

The Marine Rifle Squad from Marine Air Control Group #48, Great Lakes, lead by SNCOIC Gy/Sgt Escobar, will perform rifle volleys. A wreath will be laid at the Veterans Memorial. Refreshments will be served in the Community Room of the Lake Bluff Public Safety Building after the program.

To commemorate Veterans Day the Lake Bluff History Museum is sponsoring a display of military items from Lake Bluff residents.
