Fall Semi Annual Collection Program Scheduled

The Fall Semi-Annual Collection Program provides Village residents an opportunity to dispose of large items that are not picked up as part of the normal refuse collection. Those households with regular waste collection service on Monday will receive this free service on October 1st and those receiving collection services on Tuesday will receive this service on October 8th.

Additional information, including a list of items not available for collection, is available by clicking here.

Rib Fest - October 4th

The Village is pleased to announce on October 4th all residents are invited to the Village Green for some barbeque fun at the annual Rib Fest.

History Museum to have Crab Tree Farm & Historic East Lake Bluff Tours this Fall

The Lake Bluff History Museum will host two tours in Lake Bluff this fall that connect present and past:

The Crab Tree Farm Tour, Saturday September 27th at 10:00 am features the Crab Tree Farms Arts and Crafts Collection, housed in five buildings on the property located at 982 Sheridan Road in Lake Bluff. Architect Solon Beman designed and built Crab Tree Farm in 1910 as a model dairy farm for Grace Durand. The farm buildings have undergone extensive renovation and now house the finest collection of Arts and Crafts furnishings in the country. This tour starts at 10 am and lasts approximately 1 ½ hours. Tickets cost $25 and can be purchased at the Lake Bluff History Museum during regular museum hours.

The Camp Meetings, Chautauquas, Artists and Anarchists Tour, Sunday, October 5th starting at 1:00 pm, is a docent-led walking tour that covers much of the area developed by, and for, the Camp Meeting Association in the late 1800s. This tour provides history on the Camp Meetings, the Chautauqua Movement, and a period in the early 1900s when Lake Bluff was a destination attracting an eclectic mix of writers, poets, musicians, artists and anarchists. Multiple tour groups leave from the Union Church, 525 East Prospect, at 15 minutes intervals with the first tour group leaving at 1 pm. Tickets cost $10 and are available at the Lake Bluff History Museum.

Camp Meetings, Chautauquas, Artists and Anarchists is the second in the museum's series of three docent-led walking tours in east Lake Bluff. The first tour in this series, Camp Meeting Cottages and Country Houses, was held in July; the third tour, Uptown, All Around the Town, will focus on the commercial district and surrounding area and will be held in 2015. Private tours can be arranged through the Lake Bluff History Museum for groups interested in one or more of the series.

Tickets for both tours can be purchased at the museum during museum hours: Tuesday and Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 pm and Saturday from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. Space is limited for both tours and advance purchase is recommended.

The Lake Bluff History Museum researches, preserves and shares area history through a variety of activities and events, including programs like these tours. The museum displays tell stories of Lake Bluff's past and its archives provide individuals with access to documents, records, photographs and other materials preserved in the museum archives.
